Marks and Spencer are hoping to take on John Lewis in the 'make you feel warm and fuzzy inside' stakes with their Christmas 2014 advert.

M&S have been teasing their campaign on Twitter and now the finished, rather sparkly ad has been revealed.

Set to a festive version of Fly Me To The Moon, the ad sees two fairies called Magic and Sparkle spread Christmas cheer by making it snow, glamming up someone's wardrobe, returning a lost cat and helping two strangers find love.
